There has been several accidents happening in and around here within the last two weeks.

Leonard Vaughan's team ran away one day last week and he was thrown out and his back sprained. Sunday afternoon while Sam Redd, Miss Caltha Campbell and the small son and daughter of Bird Campbell were driving out of town, going down the first hill the breast strap broke and let the tongue fall down which frightened the team and they ran off. In some way one of the horses got loose from the surrey and ran west while the other one and the surry and Caltha fell over an embankment about thirty feet deep. It seems almost miraculous that with the exception of being bruised Miss Caltha was not injured, neither was the horse hurt, but the vehicle was a total wreck. On Monday afternoon a small son of Arthur Piper fell from a water-wagon his father was driving and was killed almost instantly. It is supposed the child struck its head against a rock which was lying in the road. The accident occurred several miles east of Dover on the Hodge road. Interment was made here. The family have the sympathy of the entire community.
